

(7) You may not be compelled to give evidence or testify against yourself. You have the right to remain silent and not testify. However, if you elect to waive these rights and testify, anything you say can and will be used as evidence against you.

(8) Where Deferred Adjudication Probation is granted, and if there is a later violation of a condition of probation, you may be arrested and detained. You will then be entitled to a hearing limited to the determination by the Court of whether it proceeds with an adjudication of guilt on the original charge. No appeal may be taken from this determination. After an adjudication of guilt, all proceedings, including assessment of punishment, pronouncements of sentence, granting of probation, and your appeal, if any, continue as if the adjudication of guilt had not been deferred, and the range of punishment for the original charge could then be considered by the Court and imposed on you.

(9) If this is a Chapter 62, CCP case, you are admonished that you will be required to meet the registration requirements of Chapter 62, if you are convicted of or placed on deferred adjudication for an offense for which a person is subject to registration under that chapter, and your attorney, or you, the defendant, if pro se, represents that by signing this document, that the said attorney representing you, if any, has duly advised you regarding registration requirements under Chapter 62 of the Code of Criminal Procedure of the State of Texas. You are also advised that as a requirement of sex offender registration, the court shall:

- 1. issue an order requiring Department of Public Safety to include that fact in the Defendant's driver's license and other personal identification records,
- 2. require the Defendant to apply for a new driver's license in person within 30 days of release or receipt of notice to renew from Department of Public Safety, and to renew the license annually.
- 3. notify the Defendant person of this consequence of conviction or deferred adjudication, and
- 4. send to the Department of Public Safety a copy of the record of conviction or deferred adjudication.
